

Flu At @ Glance

IPCRG commissioned from Stimumind a series of FluAt@Glance abstracts (2014)

- Doctors' recommendations – a major effect of vaccination rates in pregnancy
- FluAt@Glance: Pediatricians - parents trust your opinion!
- FluAt@Glance: Viruses cause 80% of pneumonia in children under 2
- FluAt@Glance: Flu vaccine safety confirmed in a study of 45,000 infants
- FluAt@Glance: Flu causes high rates of illness and hospitalization in children
- FluAt@Glance: You can make a difference! Doctors' recommendations are major incentive for paediatric vaccination
- FluAt@Glance: Mortality rates rise when children aren't vaccinated
- FluAt@Glance: Influenza vaccination in pregnancy improves the chances of a healthy baby
- FluAt@Glance: No unusual adverse effects after influenza A (H1N1) 2009 vaccination in pregnant women
- FluAt@Glance: You can make a difference! Doctors' recommendations lead to 53% rise in parental vaccination rates